

Lectra shareholders' vote on Gerber Technology acquisition project postponed

Paris, April 19, 2021 – Lectra's shareholders' vote on the proposed acquisition of Gerber Technology, initially scheduled for the April 30, 2021 Shareholders' Meeting, has been postponed to June 1, 2021, as the decision of the American regulatory authority is now expected on May 27, 2021.

A Shareholders' Meeting will be convened on June 1, 2021 specifically for this purpose and a report containing the information on the agenda will be made available to the shareholders.

The acquisition is expected to become final following the June 1, 2021 Shareholders' Meeting, subject to approval by both the shareholders and the American regulatory authority.
